Treat Others the Way You Want to Be Treated

A new commandment I give unto you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. John 13:34

God has always given His people guidance on how they should treat one another. For whatever reason, we all can be “a little difficult” to live with at times unless we train ourselves otherwise. For most of us, that’s just part of being human. For other’s, maybe it’s more?

God wants us to be considerate of others. He said that we should treat others the way we would like to be treated. How do you like to be treated? With respect, with kindness, listened to, treated fairly and honestly, made to feel accepted and cared for? If we like these things from others, it’s only natural that others would like us to treat them in the same manner.

MCYC represents itself to the boating community as being the “friendliest club on the water”. Are we really? Friendliness starts with family... in this case, our club family. A New Year’s resolution for 2010... let’s treat others the way we want to be treated and ALL will know we’re the friendliest club on the water.
